IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR MAY 25.

REPENTANCE.

LESSON TEXTS—Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 18: 9-14; Acts 17: 30.

GOLDEN TEXT—Repent ye, and believe the Gospel.—Mark 1:15.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Isaiah 1:16-18; Luke 15:11-24; Acts 17:30, 31; 2 Cor. 7:9-11; 1 Pet. 4:17.

DAILY TOPIC—God's Willingness to Forgive.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The People of Nineveh Repent.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC — Turning From Sin to God.

SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—The Nature and Fruit of Repentance.

I. The Repentance of the People of Nineveh (3:1-10).

The following steps are noted in their consideration:

1. Hearing the Word of the Lord (vv. 1-4).

The Lord commanded Jonah to go to Nineveh, a great and wicked city, and there "preach the preaching" that he (Jehovah) bade him. Jonah's runaway experience (see chapters 1, 2) was such that he was willing to obey God. His chastisement was severe, but by God's grace he was now ready to execute the commission. "Jonah arose and went unto Nineveh according to the word of the Lord" (v. 3). So great was the city of Nineveh that it required three days to compass it; that is, to visit its very center of activity. Jonah, coming from Palestine, doubtless entered the city from the south, and during an entire day going from center to center cried, "Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown" (v. 4). Since the king's palace seems to have been in the south part of the city Jonah's message soon found its way to him. If every preacher would preach what God bids him there would be more cities turning to God.

2. Believing God (v. 5).

They not only believed God would visit judgment upon them, but believed in God, and put their trust in him for mercy and salvation.

3. Repented (vv. 5-9).

Their penitence was shown in (1) proclaiming a fast and putting on sackcloth (vv. 5, 7). These marks of humiliation were shown by all, from the king on his throne to the most humble man. (2) Cried mightily to God (v. 8). In the midst of their humiliation they cried with intensity to God. (3) Turned from their evil ways (v. 8). The final test of penitence is turning from sin; it is hating sin badly enough to quit it.

4. Accepted by God (v. 10). When the Ninevites turned from their evils God refrained from executing doom upon them. It averted judgment. God is merciful; he calls. His holy nature is unalterably opposed to sin. When men repent from their sins his wrath is turned aside. This is what is meant by God repenting.

II. The Necessity of Repentance (Luke 13:1-5).

Repentance is necessary on the part of all, since all are sinners. "The wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23). While God is unalterably opposed to sin he is infinitely gracious. His holy nature can not but lead him to pass judgment on all those who will not turn from their sins to serve him. Repentance is not merely a matter of privilege, but of absolute necessity if one would escape the wrath of God. Repentance is the only door of escape from perdition. It is not a question of how great a sinner one is that determines his need for repentance since God cannot look upon evil; "For thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look upon iniquity" (Hab. 1:13). No one can ever see him in peace unless he turns from his sins. God commands men to repent (Acts 17:30).

III. The Blessed Results of Repentance (Acts 3:37,38).

1. Remission of sins. Remit means to send away. The one who repents is rid forever of his sins, for he is a new man in Christ.

2. Gift of the Holy Spirit. When one is regenerated he not only is rid of his sins, but God, the Holy Spirit, takes up his abode in him. He is his teacher, guide and defender. These blessed results ought to move one to repent. The goodness of God ought to provoke men to penitence.

You Cannot Lose.

To have is to use, not to hoard. "He that saveth his life shall lose it:" that is the reason for spending yourself—the fact that you cannot lose what you really have; the fact that spiritual quantities are real quantities; that the last is better and stronger than the worst. If we believe in it; that, to the eye of faith, Satan—like lightning—is forever falling from the heaven of things that endure.—W. H. Blake.

Influence of the Bible.

Hold fast to the Bible. It is the sheet-anchor of your liberties; write its precepts on your hearts, and practice them in your lives. To the influence of this book we are indebted for the progress made in civilization, and to this we must look as our guide in the future.—U. S. Grant.

God is Love.

"Love is not love which altercation finds." The unchangeable is Love, and Love is the unchangeable, for God is Love.

Mental Strain for the Kid.

We must not expect too much of the child and probably all that we can reasonably ask is that he see that the safety pin is closed before swallowing it.—Ohio State Journal.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadorville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak.

I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. Peace Treaty

Russia.

Germany agrees to respect as permanent and inalienable the independency of all territories which were part of the former Russian Empire, to accept the abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk and other treaties entered into with the Maximalist government of Russia, to recognize the full force of all treaties entered into by the allied and associated powers with states which were a part of the former Russian Empire, and to recognize the frontiers as determined thereon. The allied and associated powers formally reserve the right of Russia to obtain restitution and reparation of the principles of the present treaty period.

German Rights Outside Europe.

Outside Europe Germany renounces all rights, titles, and privileges as to her own or her allies' territories to all the allied and associated powers, and undertakes to accept whatever measures are taken by the five allied powers in relation thereto.

Colonies and Overseas Possessions.

Germany renounces in favor of the allied and associated powers her overseas possessions with all rights and titles therein. All movable and immovable property belonging to the German Empire or to any German state shall pass to the government exercising authority therein. These governments may make whatever provisions seem suitable for the repatriation of German nationals and as to the conditions on which German subjects of European origin shall reside, hold property, or carry on business.

China.

Germany renounces in favor of China all the privileges and indemnities resulting from the Boxer protocol of 1901 and all buildings, wharves, and barracks for the munitions of war, ships, wireless plants, and other public property except diplomatic or consular establishments in the German concessions of Tien-tsin and Hankow and in other Chinese territory except Kiauchow, and agrees to return to China at her own expense all the astronomical instruments seized in 1900 and 1901. China will, however, take no measures for dismissal of German property in the legation quarter at Pekin without the consent of the Powers signatory to the Boxer protocol.

Morocco.

Germany renounces all her rights, titles and privileges under the act of Algeciras and the Franco-German agreements of 1909 and 1911 and under all treaties and arrangements with the Shereefian empire.

Egypt.

Germany recognizes the British Protectorate over Egypt declared on December 18, 1914, and renounces as from August 4, 1914, the capitulation and all the treaties, agreements, etc., concluded by her with Egypt.

Turkey and Bulgaria.

Germany accepts all arrangements which the allied and associated powers may make with Turkey and Bulgaria with reference to any right, privileges or interests claimed in those countries by Germany or her nationals and not dealt with elsewhere.

Shantung.

Germany cedes to Japan all rights, titles and privileges, notably as to Kiaochow and the railroads, mines and cables acquired by her treaty with China of March 6, 1898, and by other agreements as to Shantung. All German rights to the railroad from Tsingtao to Tsinanfu, including all facilities and mining rights and rights of exploitation, pass equally to Japan, and the cables from Tsingtao to Shanghai and Chefoo, the cables free of all charges. All German state property, movable and immovable, in Kiaochow is acquired by Japan free of all charges.

Military, Naval, and Air.

In order to render possible the initiation of a general limitation of the armaments of all nations, Germany undertakes directly to observe the military, naval, and air clauses, which follow:

Military Forces.

The demobilization of the German army must take place within two months of the peace. Its strength may not exceed 100,000, including 4,000 officers, with not over seven divisions of infantry and three of cavalry, and to be devoted exclusively to maintenance of internal order and control of frontiers. The great German general staff is abolished.

Armaments.

All establishments for the manufacturing, preparation, storage, or design of arms and munitions of war, except those specifically excepted, must be closed within three months of the peace and their plant

Lime Water.

Slack one-half cupful of lime with about one-half pint of water, slowly added; when slacked well add one quart of water and stir thoroughly. Allow it to settle, decant closely and pour the water away, then add one gallon of fresh, clear distilled water or rain water to the washed lime; shake often for a day or two and let settle.

He Unsurprised.

Mrs. Henpeck—"She's very pretty, but she hardly says a word. I can't understand why so many men propose to her." Mr. Henpeck—"I can."—London Answers.

Look Decent.

Bobby's father was a photographer, and the little fellow had often seen him take pictures and heard him admonish the people to "Look pleasant, please." One day he obtained a small, worn out camera and pretended to take his little playmate's picture. Desiring her to stand for a snapshot, he directed: "Now, Hazel, stand still and look decent, please."

The Kiel canal is to remain free and open to war and merchant ships of all nations at peace with Germany; subjects, goods and ships of all states are to be treated on terms of absolute equality.

Members of the League of Nations agree to establish a permanent organization to promote international adjustment of labor conditions, to consist of an annual international labor conference and an international labor office. The first meeting of the conference will take place in October, 1919, at Washington.

As a guarantee for the execution of the treaty Germa territory to the west of the Rhine, together with the bridgeheads, will be occupied by allied and associated troops for 15 years.

The treaty is to become effective in all respects for each power on the date of deposition of its ratification.

TREATY DIVIDED INTO FIFTEEN SECTIONS.

Following the preamble and deposition of powers comes the covenant of the League of Nations as the first section of the treaty. The frontiers of Germany in Europe are defined in the second section; European political clauses are given in the third; and extra-European political clauses in the fourth. Next are the military, naval, and air terms as the fifth section, followed by a section on prisoners of war and military graves, and a seventh on responsibilities. Reparations, financial terms, and economic terms are covered in sections eight to ten. Then comes the aeronautic section, ports, waterways, and railway section, the labor covenant, the section on guarantees, and the final clauses.

Shipping.

The German government recognizes the right of the allies to the replacement, ton for ton and class for class, of all merchant ships and fishing boats lost or damaged owing to the war, and agrees to cede to the allies all German merchant ships of 1,600 tons gross and upwards; one-half of her ships between 1,000 and 1,600 tons gross, and one-quarter of her steam trawlers and other fishing boats.

Devastated Areas.

Germany undertakes to devote her economic resources directly to the physical restoration of the invaded areas. The Reparation Commission is authorized to require Germany to replace the destroyed articles by the delivery of animals, machinery, etc., existing in Germany and by manufacture of materials required for reconstruction from the stocks or factories of Germany's essential domestic requirements.

The German government is also to restore to the French government certain papers taken by the German authorities in 1870, belonging then to Marcheret, and to restore the French flags taken during the war of 1870 and 1871.

Miscellaneous Treaty Points.

Sections ten to fifteen cover the following points:

For a period of six months Germany shall impose no tariff duties higher than the lowest in force in 1914.

Allied shipping must enjoy same rights in German ports as German vessels.

The school exercises were held May 17 in the presence of a record breaking crowd, and seemed to be enjoyed by all present. Delightful music was furnished by Messrs. Courtney and Collier Harvey, and in addition to the school program a negro dialogue composed by Walker Jennings, and acted by he and his brother, was pronounced extraordinary by all; remarkable talent was plainly discernible. We have paid for admittance to inferior acting to theirs.

Ethelyn Lee and Jessalyn Johnson were awarded a prize for regular attendance; Nollie Lewis for best boy in school, Anna Pugh and Cora Smith for best girls; Olive Lewis, Verta Sims and Noula Woolridge and Bennie Johnson for improvement. Other awards of merit were won by Lillie Smith, Mildred Sims, Ruby Woolridge, Hassie and Vara Smith, Randal Woolridge, Lawson and Bertrand Lee, Coy Mann, Alta and Cornell Pugh, and Naomi Harvey.

The teacher, Mrs. Annie Lee, was the recipient of some nice presents from the pupils, which were highly appreciated.

The report for the term shows 59 pupils enrolled, and an average attendance of 22 for every day.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. VIEW OF U. S. CAPITOL DURING PAINTING.

The dome of the United States Capitol at Washington is kept in excellent condition by painting it every few years. For this work forty painters are steadily employed for three months' time. Over five thousand gallons of paint are required for one coat. The reason for painting the Capitol dome at regular intervals is to prevent disintegration of metallic surface.

THE COSMETIC OF THE INANIMATE.

¶I am the saver of surfaces.
¶I am the world-old preserver.
¶Noah knew me, for he pitched the ark within and without.
¶The Pharaohs sought me as an adornment for their tombs—their mummies endure because I conserve.
¶I am the woad of the ancient Britons: their blue battle hue.
¶Because of me the treasures of the Sistine Chapel defy effacement.
¶I am the keeper of the antique.
¶I am the servant of progress.
¶Columbus found me bedecking the savages who watched him plant Ferdinand's banner on the shores of New Spain; and the very sails of his caravels resisted the elements of the West through my aid.
¶The pioneers westward wending their way daubed the prairie schooners with my protection.
¶I am the royal robes of civilization's monarchs, Steel and Lumber.
¶The taut wings of the airplane gleam under my protective veneer.
¶The sullen dreadnaught and the homing transport plow the seas impervious to corrosion because of me.
¶I waterproofed your agents of destruction, the bullet and the shell.
¶Then I drew the mercy of my concealing camouflage over your hospitals.
¶I exist on the homes, and on the barns, and on the cement surfaces.
¶Where life is, I am alive.
¶Where death and decay set in my absence hastens them.
¶And my mission is to preserve.
¶Saver of Surface, I am PAINT!

THE QUINCY MANSION, QUINCY, MASS., BUILT IN 1685.

America's classic example of a clapboard building preserved for over two hundred years by careful and frequent painting. It has secret panels, chimney staircase and hiding places, said to have been used by smugglers. Later the home of great statesmen and of the famous belle, Dorothy Quincy.

SAVE THE SURFACE.

Save the surface and you save all. Disintegration and decay are conditions which usually start at the surface of any material. Protection against deterioration or rot of substances, therefore, should begin with a care of the exterior. Provided a material does not carry within itself the element of sure decay, a proper surface protection will undoubtedly lengthen its life.

THE PAINTER'S BEST FRIEND

Of all the many liquid substances which can be used for the binding of paint or dry substances which when dissolved in water are used as vehicles for pigments none fulfills necessary conditions so well as linseed oil, the king of the fixed oil, and, what is of enormous importance, it does it as cheaply. It is the painter's best friend because it makes his work satisfactory.

"Satan is a creature of so frightful a mien,

But seen too oft familiar with his face,

It is a fact that so much wrongdoing goes on that we have get used to it, and even crime loses its hatefulness in our sight.

And then, too, the time-worn and trite old saying "that bad news never lacks for a carrier" was fully exemplified when the unfortunate shooting affair took place at Dillwyn. I was in the northern part of the county and heard of it first over the phone, but as I came home that evening I found that the news had spread even to where there was no phone line.

Birthday Party

Mr. E. T. Wingfield gave a big party in celebration of his birthday, Saturday night, May 17, at his home on Buchanan St. It was the occasion of much enjoyment. There was a large attendance and all seemed to enjoy themselves. The parlor was beautifully decorated with all kinds of cut flowers.

All kinds of games were played, and at 9:30 his little niece, Lacy Roberson, dressed as Little Maid, walked in and opened the door to a bountiful supper of ice cream, cake and refreshments of all kind.

The out-of town guests were his nephew, Mr. Tucker Nowlin, of Appomattox, Miss Marie Burton, of Bedford, and the Misses Gilliam, of Roanoke.

The above occasion took place in Lynchburg.
